invites you to the conference

LIFE OF MUSING AND INSPIRATION

A Tribute to Petr Ráb

This one-day conference will feature scientific talks exploring research directions shaped by his visionary thinking, boundless curiosity, and intellectual breadth. His legacy extends across numerous scientific fields, inspiring generations of researchers to follow in his footsteps.

May 21, 2025

Masarykův kulturní dům, Mělník

Following the lectures, we warmly invite you to an informal gathering with refreshments, where we can share memories, ideas, and the lasting inspiration he has left us.

Conference is free - registration is required. Details online.
